

Patagonia Lake

State Park

Arizona's southern region supports the blue waters of Patagonia Lake State Park. This 2.5 mile long lake is a favorite among southern boaters. Anglers love this lake filled with bass, crappie, bluegill, and catfish.

Visitors can enjoy water-skiing (restrictions apply), camping, boat rentals, picnicking, hiking and birding. Located within the park is Sonoita Creek State Natural Area. It is Arizona's first major state natural area, totalling almost 5,000 acres.

Beach, picnic area with ramadas, tables, grills, fishing pad (handicap accessible), hiking trails, boat ramps, marina, camp supply store, campground, group use area (day use), 72 campsites, 34 hook-ups and 12 boat access sites, restrooms, showers and dump station, RV size limit is 35 feet.
